

2007 Employees of the Year

Barry Schultz of the Menno Location was selected as Employee of the Year 2007 for the East Region, because he is an enjoyable person to work with and a hard worker. He not only works for the Agronomy area as an applicator, he also is Menno's main propane driver. Barry has proven himself to be a team player. Congratulations, Barry!

Dan Krcil of the Wagner location was selected as Employee of the Year 2007 for the West Region, due to his great enthusiasm to really take care of his customer base and get petroleum products delivered on time. His efforts have gained the Wagner location 76 new propane customers and 37 new petroleum customers. He is truly a team player as he will also assist other departments as time allows him. Congratulations, Dan!
